

2011 Nominations Note

Candidates should be individuals, groups or organisations doing outstanding work in any discipline or field relevant to culture and development.

Candidates should be living and working in countries relevant to the Fund's mission. The primary regions are Africa, Asia, Latin America and the Caribbean. Candidates who live and work in Zones of Silence, countries and spaces where cultural expression is restricted or hidden, are of special interest to the Fund. Further information on Zones of Silence is provided in the attached Policy Note.

To nominate your candidate/s, please write a personal proposal of 1000 words or less:

- giving an account of the artistic or intellectual quality of the candidate's work
- describing the significance of the work in the wider cultural and social context
- explaining why you consider the candidate eligible for an award.

Please include the candidate's e-mail address, postal address, telephone and fax numbers, wherever possible. Additional information supporting your nomination/s, particularly documentation of the candidate's work, will be very welcome.

Your nomination/s can be submitted in English (preferably), French or Spanish.

Nominations should reach the Fund before 15 September 2010. If you would like to present a candidate but are unable to meet the 15 September deadline, please let us know so an alternative date can be arranged.

Your nomination/s can be sent by e-mail, fax or post to:

Prince Claus Fund
Fariba de Bruin-Derakhshani
Herengracht 603
1017 CE Amsterdam
The Netherlands
Tel: +31 20 344 9160
Fax: +31 20 344 9166
f.debruin@princeclausfund.nl

Nominations are strictly confidential. All nominations are exclusively the subject of communication between the nominator and the Prince Claus Fund, and between the Fund and its selected advisors. Please do not discuss your nomination/s with anyone other than co-nominators appointed by yourself who are likewise bound to confidentiality.

If you have any questions or would like further information on anything related to the nomination process, please contact Fariba de Bruin-Derakhshani at f.debruin@princeclausfund.nl.